Subject: Violation of Public Procurement Rules 2004, Joint Director (Administration), Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan's Tender for Designing and Printing of SECP Annual Report

Please refer to your letter No. Nil, dated: July 09, 2013, on subject matter referred above.

We thank you for your prompt and in time information.

Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan, itself believes in transparent procurement and appreciates such concerns to develop and improve procedures in this regard.

It is informed that subject violation was an unintentional error and will not be repeated in future. However, our advertisement "Tender for Designing and Printing of SECP Annual Report" bearing PID(i) No.094/13, published in national dailies on July 07, 2013, has been cancelled and bids received in response of said tender were returned unopened in light of the TOR of the tender

The process will be re-initiated at appropriate time in accordance with relevant rules.

Regards,

Abid Hussain
Director / Head of Division
Support Services Division
