Sub: Your Organization may be declared as Violator of Procurement Law
National Corruption Perception Survey (NCPS) 2009

Dear Sir,

In response to the letter sent by Transparency International Pakistan in connection with National Corruption Perception Survey (NCPS) 2009, to inform public how many organization are following Procurement Law, TI Pakistan has received Contract Agreement and Evaluation Reports from most of the organization. A number of organizations like Ministry of Health, PQA, Pakistan Steel, KPT etc. are posting or are in the process of posting of their Contracts and Evaluation Reports on the website.

However, your organization is not posting the Contract Agreement and Evaluation Reports on the website, and has also not supplied the documents to TI Pakistan. The information was requested by TI Pakistan in March 2009.

Kindly note that according to the Public Procurement Rules 2004, under Rule No. 47 Contract Agreement and Evaluation Report are public documents.

Transparency International Pakistan would again like to inform you that all those departments who do not provide the information to TI Pakistan by 20th June 2009, will be declared as Violator of Procurement Rules 2004.

Yours Sincerely,

Syed Adil Gilani
Chairman
