16th April, 2015

Director General,
Federal Investigation Agency,
Islamabad.

Sub: Violation of Public Procurement Rules 2004, Project Director, National Response Centre for Cyber Crimes (NR3C), Federal Investigation Agency, Islamabad's Re-Tender Notice for Supply of Machinery Items.

Dear Sir,

This is with reference to National Response Centre for Cyber Crimes (NR3C), Federal Investigation Agency, Islamabad's Re-Tender Notice published in daily "Jang" on 12th April, 2015. It is observed that the advertisement is in violation of the Public Procurement Rules 2004.

As per advertisement, no information regarding response time is mentioned for the bidders, for the submission of bids. It is a violation of Public Procurement Rules 2004, Rule No.13 (1). The Rule is quoted below for your reference;

13. Response time. - (1) The procuring agency may decide the response time for receipt of bids or proposals (including proposals for pre-qualification) from the date of publication of an advertisement or notice, keeping in view the individual procurement's complexity, availability and urgency. However, under no circumstances the response time shall be less than fifteen days for national competitive bidding and thirty days for international competitive bidding from the date of publication of advertisement or notice.

Also, as per PPRA guidelines mentioned in the 'Desirable Minimum Information to Be Provided in Tender Notice' the Closing date and time as well as opening time and place of bids place should be given in the tender notice. (Copy Attached)

The above information is forwarded for the purpose of avoiding the mis-procurement charge under Rule No 50, and with request to re-invite the tender notice under the prescribed procedures or issue a corrigendum and extend date accordingly.

Transparency International Pakistan is striving for across the board application of Rule of Law, which is the only way to stop corruption.

With Regards,

Sohail Muzaffar
Chairman
