Subject: Non-Implementation of Alternative Medicines & Health Products (Enlistment) Rules 2014, S.R.O 412 has opened a massive door for Corruption.

Dear Sirs,

Transparency International Pakistan has sent a letter to Four Chief Ministers of Provinces, on a complaint on the Non-Implementation of Alternative Medicines & Health Products (Enlistment) Rules 2014, S.R.O 412 which has opened a massive door for Corruption in Pakistan. Copy of the letter is enclosed. Annex-B

The Chief Minister Punjab has taken immediate steps to make accountable and stop sale of all fake medicines in Punjab Province, started a crusade of war against spurious drug manufacturers, and has also announced a reward of Rs. 1,000,000 to any person identifying and reporting with proof any fake medicine being sold in whole of Punjab province. Annex-A.

The regional Director Generals NAB are requested to take up eradication of the menace of fake medicines and also sale of unregistered alternate medicines which is illegal under S.R.O 412, in all provinces, a fraud with public, under the NAO 1999.

Transparency International Pakistan is striving for across the board application of Rule of Law, which is the only way to stop corruption.

With Regards,

Sohail Muzaffar
Chairman
