Sub: Violation of Balochistan Public Procurement Rules 2014, Superintendent, Multipurpose Sheep Research Center, Yetabat at Loralai's Tender Notice for Equipment.

Dear Sir,

This is with reference to Multipurpose Sheep Research Center, Yetabat at Loralai's Tender Notice, published in daily "Express" on 19th May, 2017. It is observed that the advertisement is in violation of the BPPRA Rules 2014.

As per advertisement, "The items may be increase or decrease depend on the availability of amount from the same location", whereas any change in tender conditions, specifications and quantity after bid opening by procuring agency is not allowed under Rules. However according to BPPRA 2014, Rule No. 51 (f) (i), repeat orders cannot exceed more than 15% of the original quantity. Stated as under;

51. Alternate Methods of Procurements.— (1) A Procuring Agency may utilize following alternative methods of procurement of goods, services and works, namely:—

(f) Repeat Orders.— means procurement of additional quantities of the item(s) from the original contractor or supplier, where, after the items originally envisaged for the project or scheme have been procured through open competitive bidding, and such additional quantities of the same item(s) of goods or works are needed to meet the requirements of the project or scheme:

Provided that—(i) the cost of additional quantities of item(s) shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the original contract amount;

The above information is forwarded for the purpose of avoiding mis-procurement charge and with request to re-invite the tender under the prescribed procedures or issue a corrigendum and extend date accordingly.

Transparency International Pakistan is striving for across the board application of Rule of Law and good governance.

With Regards,

Sohail Muzaffar
Chairman
