1. This office had invited tender notice for Procurement of Goods and Services vide letter No. SKP/G-148/2495 Dated 05-12-2016, for quoting rates on annual repairing services, jobs to be valid up to 30-06-2017. The notice in question was published in leading newspapers through the Director Information Department Government of Sindh Karachi and also copy of the notice was sent the Director (A&F) Sindh Public Procurement Authority Karachi for hosting on the SPPRA website. The notice in question was never rejected by the Director (A&F) (SPPRA) Karachi, it is therefore evident that the above office had hosted the tender notice in question on its website without any objection.
2. According to condition No. 6 of the notice the procure agency had reserve the right to reject any or all bids without assigning any reason under the provision of SPPRA Rule 2010 (Amended 2013) it is clarified that the condition No. 6 pertain to the rejection of the rates and not cancellation of the tendering process as adhered by your office, there was no violation of SPPRA Rule 25 (4) the tendering process has not been cancelled at any stage and there was vast difference between rejection and cancellation. Thus there was no question of giving reasons to the bidders for cancellation of bids.
3. The Rule 45 does not pertain to rejection of the bids the evaluation reports shows all the rates quoted by the all contractors it is pointed out that the rates when opened were publicly announce in presence of the available contractors and such rates were hosted in evaluation reports prepared instantly which leads to prove that the rates quoted by the contractors were publicly read out and the contractors come to knowledge regarding lowest rates. The bid evaluation report minutes of meeting of committee, bidders qualification report, attendance sheet and comparative statement have already been sent to the Deputy Director (A&F) SPPRA Government of Sindh Karachi for hosting on SPPRA website as per provision of SPPRA Rules.

4. From foregoing facts it would appear that this office has not violated the SPPRA rules at any stage and this office has not given any way to encourage the corruption.
