Subject: Violation of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Public Procurement of Goods, Works and Services Rules 2014, PM F/Studies Raw Sites Phase-II, PEDO Peshawar's Tender Notice for Equipment. – Clarifications on Advertisement

Reference: Your letter no/TL18/2102/1A dated 21-02-2018

Dear Sir,

We refer to your above letter wherein Transparency International-Pakistan has declared this office Tender Notice published in daily "Dawn" on 19th February, 2018 as in violation of the KPPRA Rules 2014.

We hereby offer the following clarifications for your kind consideration, to the various points raised in your above letter.

1. Ref# para 2: Please note that the Tender for Notice was invited under Rules 6(2a) of the KPPRA-2014, as the advertised goods are simple and routine nature procurements and does not fall under KPPRA procurement, Rules 10. "Alternate Methods for Procurement of goods".

2. To ensure transparency, besides posting on procuring entity and KPPRA websites, the aforesaid procurement of goods, was also advertised in National Newspapers, although it was optional as per KPPRA Rule 11(1) "Method of Advertisement".

We assure you that best procurement practices as per relevant rules of KPPRA-2014 would be followed for the intended Goods.

Should any further clarification is deem by Transparency international-Pakistan, please write to us at the address noted on the official letter head.
