Dear Sir,

Please refer to your letter No. TL 15/610/4A dated 06.10.2015 regarding an advertisement for consulting firm for evaluation of I.T. Infrastructure at this hospital.

You have identified several "Violations" of the KPPRA rules 2014 and you have itemized them as below; however none of these rules have been violated as follows:

1. 20 days were given for the applicants which is certainly more than the 02 weeks which is required.
2. (a) our name and address were clearly listed in the advertisement
(b) the description of the assignment is clearly listed in the advertisement as follows:
"To offer design, implementation, after sale and technical training services to establish a reliable and efficient IT infrastructure in the Hospital"
(c) The dead line was clearly stated
(d) We have short-listing criteria that will obviously include qualification, experience, and other relevant factors as per KPPRA rules and these do not need to be stated

I am at a loss to understand which KPPRA rules we may have violated. I trust that in the future you will consider more carefully before assuming that any "violations" have occurred.
