SUB: VIOLATION OF PUBLIC PROCUREMENT RULES 2004, CHIEF ENGINEER, KARACHI PORT TRUST (KPT) KARACHI'S TENDER NOTICE FOR REPLACEMENT / INSTALLATION OF FIRE FIGHTING LINE.

Ref: Your letter No.TL16/1708/14A dated 17th August.2016.

With reference to above, I am directed to state that the Tender Notice regarding work "Replacement / Installation of 8 inch dia D.I Pipe (Imported) for fire fighting line at OP-I, Keamari" was published by KPT in daily "The News" and daily "Express" on 29.07.2016 not in daily "Nawai waqt" on 13.08.2016 as mentioned in your referred letter dated 17.08.2016. The copies of both the press advertisement and snap shot of PPRA and KPT Website properly highlighted are enclosed at Annexure "A" for perusal.

As per the Advertisement of "Tender Notices", the bidding documents can be obtained from 29.07.2016 to till 18.08.2016, thus a clear 21 days time was given from the date of publication to purchase the documents.

This is in accordance with PPRA Rule 13(1) of 2004, which directs that response time should not be less than 15 days from date of publication. Hence there is no violation of referred clause of PPRA Rules.

Encl: As above

...notice raised by Col. Tahir Hissain Mashhadi about the increasing threats of natural disasters in the country and the policy of the government to save lives and properties of Pakistani people from such calamities. He said that Pakistan was also included in the list of countries that were affected by climate change.

He said that trees were being planted across the country under the Green Pakistan Project and the prime minister was also taking a keen interest in this regard. The prime minister had allocated billions of rupees for climate change, he added.

...damaged infrastructure, affected business activities and caused financial losses to the people of Malakand division in the past few years. They said the people cannot afford more burden in shape of the Customs Act imposed on them against their will.

...speakers said the government should carry out development work and promote business activities in Malakand division to improve the life standard of its people instead of burdening them with more taxes. They said that no mega development project was carried out in Malakand so far. They said that the roads were in a dilapidated condition while performance of other government departments was next to nothing.
