Sub: News erroneously attributed to Transparency International Pakistan.

Dear Sir,

In your issue of 24th February, 2010 a report on the first page regarding politicians spending crores of rupees on weddings of their off-springs has erroneously been attributed to Transparency International Pakistan.

Transparency International Pakistan is neither investigating the issues as reported in your newspaper nor has released any statement in this regard.

You are, therefore, advised to publish a corrigendum in your newspaper stating that Transparency International has nothing to do with your news item.

Regards,

Syed Adil Gilani
