Sub: Violation of Public Procurement Rules 2004, Section Office (GA), Ministry of Information, Broadcasting and National Heritage, Islamabad's Tender Notice for Miscellaneous Items.

Dear Sir,

This is with reference to Ministry of Information, Broadcasting and National Heritage, Islamabad's Tender Notice, published in the "The News" on 22nd April, 2017. It is observed, the advertisement is in violation of the PPRA Rules 2004.

As per advertisement, "the procuring agency reserves the right to increase/ decrease the quantity of tender items". Any change in tender conditions, specifications and quantity after bid opening by procuring agency is not allowed under Rules. However according to PPRA Rules 2004, Rule No. 42 (c) (iv), repeat orders cannot exceed more than 15% of the original quantity. Stated as under;

42. Alternative methods of procurements.- A procuring agency may utilize the following alternative methods of procurement of goods, services and works, namely:-

(c) direct contracting: a procuring agency shall only engage in direct contracting if any of the following conditions exist:

(iv) repeat orders not exceeding fifteen per cent of the original procurement;

The above information is forwarded for the purpose of avoiding mis-procurement charge under Rule No 50, and with request to re-invite the tender under the prescribed procedures or issue a corrigendum and extend date accordingly.

Transparency International Pakistan is striving for across the board application of Rule of Law, which is the only way to stop corruption.

With Regards,

Sohail Muzaffar
Chairman

Copies forwarded for the information with request to take action under their mandate to:
