Brig. (retd.) Tariq Saddozai,
Chairman,
National Electric Power Regulatory Authority (NEPRA),
Islamabad.

2nd Reminder

Sub: Complaint against Collusion of NEPRA and Port Qasim Electric Power Company (Private) Limited (PQEPCL) in Determining of Tariff for 2x660 MW Coal Power Plant, Sponsored by Mr. Saifur Rahaman.

Over Charging of Tariff in 30 Years Caused Extra Payment to PQEPCL of Rs. 51.7 Billion at 100% Efficiency.

Dear Sir,

Transparency International Pakistan refers to its letter dated 12th September, 2015 and a Reminder has also been sent to you dated 4th February, 2016, on a complaint which comprises of the allegation of collusion between NEPRA and Port Qasim Electric Power Company (Private) Limited (PQEPCL) in determining of Tariff for 2x660 MW Coal Power Plant. However, no reply has been received till date, causing loss of Rs. 51.7 Billion to public.

Chairman, NEPRA is again requested to take immediate action to inquire into above allegations, and if the allegations are found correct, action under NAO 1999 should be taken against all those officers of NEPRA who are responsible for this collusive practice, and all the sponsors who have conspired to obtain false tariff from NEPRA.

Transparency International Pakistan is striving for across the board application of Rule of Law, which is the only way to stop corruption.

With Regards,

Sohail Muzaffar
Chairman
