

1st April, 2014

Mr. Agha Jan Akhtar,
Chairman,
Port Qasim Authority,
Port Qasim,
Karachi.

Sub: Port Qasim Authority (PQA), Karachi's Request for Proposal (RFP) for Establishment of Coal Terminal(s) on BOT Basis at Port Qasim.

Dear Sir,

This is with reference to Port Qasim Authority (PQA), Karachi's Tender Notice, published in daily "Dawn" on 1st April, 2014.

As per advertisement it is mentioned that "Any firm in litigation with PQA shall not be considered". However it is an unconstitutional condition and PQA cannot stop any party from bidding as it is allowed to contest under its constitution rights.

This clause maybe deleted, from the PQA's advertisement, and re-invited.

Transparency International Pakistan is striving for across the board application of Rule of Law, which is the only way to stop corruption.

With Regards,

Sohail Muzaffar
Chairman

Copies forwarded for the information with request to take action under their mandate to:
